Coaches

8. In addition to paragraph 7 above, Coaches have additional responsibilities. The athlete-coach relationship is a privileged one and plays a critical role in the personal as well as athletic development of their athletes. Coaches must understand and respect the inherent power imbalance that exists in this relationship and must be extremely careful not to abuse it. Coaches will at all times:

- a) Ensure a safe environment by selecting activities and establishing controls that are suitable for the age, experience, ability and fitness level of athletes, including educating athletes as to their responsibilities in contributing to a safe environment;
- b) Prepare athletes systematically and progressively, using appropriate time frames and monitoring physical and psychological adjustments while refraining from using training methods or techniques that may harm athletes;
- c) Avoid compromising the present and future health of athletes by communicating and cooperating with sport medicine professionals in the diagnosis, treatment and management of athletes' medical and psychological problems;
- d) Under no circumstances provide, promote or condone the use of drugs or performance-enhancing substances;
- e) Accept and promote athletes' personal goals and refer athletes to other coaches and sports specialists as appropriate and as opportunities arise;
- f) At no time engage in an intimate or sexual relationship with an athlete of under the age of 18 years and at no time engage in an intimate or sexual relation with an athlete over the age of 18 if the coach is in a position of power, trust or authority over the athlete.
- g) Where an athlete has qualified for a training camp, provincial team, national team, etc., the Coach will support the program, applicable coaching staff and TRIATHLON ONTARIO.
- h) Give athletes the opportunity to discuss and contribute to proposed training and performance standards as appropriate. Provide athletes and the parents/guardians of athletes who are minors with the information necessary to be involved in the decisions that affect the athlete as appropriate;
- i) Refrain from intervening inappropriately in personal affairs that are outside the generally accepted jurisdiction of a coach;

j) Act in the best interest of the athlete's development as a whole person;

k) Recognize the power inherent in the position of coach and respect and promote the rights of all participants in sport. This is accomplished by establishing and following procedures for confidentiality (right to privacy); informed participation and fair and reasonable treatment. Coaches have a special responsibility to respect and promote the rights of participants who are in a vulnerable or dependent position and less able to protect their own rights.

Athletes

9. In addition to paragraph 7 above, Athletes will have additional responsibilities to:

a) Report any medical problems in a timely fashion, where such problems may limit the athlete's ability to travel, train or compete.

b) Participate and appear on time in all competitions, practices, training sessions, events, activities or projects.

c) Properly represent themselves and not attempt to enter a competition for which they are not eligible, by reason of age, classification or other reasons.

d) Adhere to TRIATHLON ONTARIO's rules and requirements regarding clothing and equipment.

Officials

10. In addition to paragraph 7 above, Officials will have additional responsibilities to:

a) Be fair and objective.

b) Avoid situations which a conflict of interest may arise.

c) Make independent judgments.

Parents/Guardians and Spectators

11. In addition to paragraph 7 above, Parents/Guardians of TRIATHLON ONTARIO Members and Spectators at events will:

a) Encourage athletes to play by the rules and to resolve conflicts without resorting to hostility or violence;

b) Never ridicule a participant for making a mistake during a performance or practice;

c) Provide positive comments that motivate and encourage participants continued effort;

d) Respect the decisions and judgments of officials, and encourage athletes to do the same;

e) Never question a referee/officials' or TRIATHLON ONTARIO staffs' judgment or honesty;

f) Respect and show appreciation to all competitors, and to the coaches, officials, referees and other volunteers who give their time to the sport.

g) Keep off of the playing area and not interfere with play or calls.
